

Senior Energy Business Controller - NrgFin Netherlands

NrgFin is hiring a senior utility business controller who will manage the operations team, responsible for controlling the performance of Dutch energy suppliers, our customers. You will be the account manager for the bigger Nrgfin customers.

We are an independent company working across the energy market, providing solutions for informed decision making, by assuring margin accuracy and controlling operational and settlement processes. We transform, analyze, integrate and visualize water data based on the latest market standards. We offer solutions to water suppliers, to allow operational and finance management to interpret, manage and control the results for electricity and natural gas. The financial reporting tools run in Qlik Sense.

You will be located in our flying offices near Eindhoven and will be responsible for the actuals and budgeting process of the energy margins of NrgFin customers. You will assist in establishing financial and operational management reporting and ad-hoc analyses in order to provide internal and external stakeholders with the necessary information to better evaluate the business results. You will critically think along with NrgFin's Associate Director responsible for gas and power utilities, and initiate and support decisions. Furthermore you will be involved in projects of different nature as we continuously grow and expand our business area.

Qualifications:

- MSc Commercial engineer or Economic Sciences 5-10 Profound experience in the Dutch energy markets, both businesswise and IT technical (market protocol), ideally operational experience in pricing, settlement and sourcing domains
- Candidates should be interested in problem-solving and enjoy making sense of complex data
- Qlik Sense knowledge is an asset but not a must
- Coaching Management Style
- Able to work on a strategic, tactical and operational level
- Accurate and analytic
- Strong communication and social skills
- Initiative and drive
- Fluent in English and French, Dutch is an asset

Job offer:

At NrgFin, you can count on a varied job with an international niche market player that stimulates its people to grow and to work together. We offer you an open ended contract with the possibility to grow further towards partnership. The position carries a competitive salary and a package of extra-legal benefits.
